(GCWL members are not eligible to enter.)

Winners also receive a free one-year GCWL membership.

Greater Cincinnati Writers' League, a 78-year-old organization, encourages the art and craft of poetry writing through monthly meetings where professional poets critique members' poems, as well as through this annual poetry contest and occasional workshops and public readings. New members are always welcome.

More information about GCWL, including contest guidelines and members' poems, can be found at cincinnatiwritersleague.org. Questions about the contest should be directed to 513-321-6789.
